

UNIVERSITY OF NORTHERN IOWA PERKINS LOAN FORBEARANCE/HARDSHIP APPLICATION

This form contains information and application for an economic hardship deferment, and unemployment deferment, and forbearance application. Read it carefully – it will tell you exactly what you need to provide with this application so processing is not delayed.

We are required to have a written request from you for any type of deferment. This means you must be sure to sign this form.

Economic hardship and unemployment deferments defer both principal and interest during the deferment and have a six-month grace period following. Forbearance defers only the principal, the interest continues to accrue and can be paid during the deferment or in a lump sum at the end of the deferment. There is no grace period on forbearance.

ALL BORROWERS MUST :

- 1 - Fill out name and address information on the back of the form.
- 2 – Fill out the mandatory section explaining your situation.
- 3 – Sign and date the deferment request.

Indicate which deferment you qualify for, sign and date the form, and include all required documents. When received, we will do the best deferment we can for you, based on the information/documents supplied. INCOMPLETE FORMS OR FORMS WITHOUT REQUIRED DOCUMENTS WILL BE RETURNED, UNPROCESSED.

#1 -- ECONOMIC HARDSHIP DEFERMENT

Economic hardship is indicated for those borrowers who:

1 – Have large federal student loan debt compared to their income. You may be working full time (3 months at least 30 hours per week) or you might not be working at all.

2 – Are receiving public assistance from a federal or state source. Examples are, but are not limited to, AFDC, SSI, food Stamps, or FIP.

OR 3 – Have received an economic hardship on another federal student loan. An economic hardship deferment is different than a forbearance 00 your documentation must state it is an economic hardship deferment.

THIS DEFERMENT REQUIRES THAT YOU PROVIDE:

1 – (A) Proof of your federal student loan debt. A copy of a letter or statement from your lender is considered acceptable.

(B) A copy of pay stubs to show a month's normal gross and net pay.

2 – Proof that you are receiving public assistance. This must be from your local, state, or federal agency and show the dates that you have been eligible. (i.e. AFDC, WIC, SSI...)

OR 3 – Proof that you have received an economic hardship on another federal student loan. This must be a copy of a letter from your lender/servicer showing it is under this type of deferment, not forbearance.

This deferment will defer your principal and inters plus a six-month grace period following. No payments are required during any of this time.

THREE-YEAR MAXIMUM ALLOWED OVER THE LIFE OF YOUR LOAN.

#2 -- UNEMPLOYMENT DEFERMENT

Unemployment deferment is indicated if you have been looking for full-time employment but have been unable to find it. You are either not working at all, or working only part-time.

YOU MUST PROVIDE either proof from your unemployment office that you have signed up for benefits, copy is of pay stubs or a letter from your employer showing only part-time work, or, if none of these is available, an affidavit written by you.

An affidavit written by you must show the dates you became less than full-time, general circumstances, explain that you are looking for full-time work, but have been unable to find it, and how long you think you will be in this status.

This deferment will defer your principal and inters plus a six-month grace period following. No payments are required during any of this time.

#3 -- FORBEARANCE

Forbearance deferment is indicated if your situation does not fit into either the economic hardship or unemployment criteria. Forbearance is indicated when your present financial circumstances don't allow you to make your payments, or you have poor health, or you are required to care for a family member with poor health, or you are on a national military mobilization or you are working for Ameri-Corps as a volunteer (under a reimbursement agreement with them), or for some other acceptable reason.

Documentation that is required should back up the reason you are applying for this deferment. For example, if you are on military mobilization a copy of your orders would be appropriate. Or, if you are in poor health, a statement from your doctor stating you are unable to work full-time based on your health would be appropriate.

YOU ARE REQUIRED TO COMPLETE THE FINANCIAL STATEMENT ON THE BACK OF THIS FORM. THE ONLY DOCUMENTS YOU NEED TO SEND TO SUBSTANTIATE THIS INFORMATION ARE:

1 – A COPY OF YOUR PAY STUB
AND 2 – A COPY OF OTHER FEDERAL STUDENT LOAN DEBT.

You must decide how you want to pay the interest that accrues. If you fail to fill out either option, it will automatically be done as a lump sum during the deferment.

Do you want to pay the interest during the deferment? A monthly bill will be sent.
