SECTION 2: INFORMATION

A cancellation/deferment may be available if you are employed full-time as a:

- Provider of early intervention services to infants and toddlers (birth to age two) with disabilities in a public or non-profit program.
- Provider of services to high-risk children. High-risk children are defined as children under age 21 who are low-income; at risk of abuse or neglect; have been abused or neglected; have serious emotional, mental, or emotional behavioral disturbances; reside in placements outside of their homes; or are involved in the juvenile judicial system. The place of employment must be a public or non-profit child or family service agency and the services provided to adults must be secondary to services provided to high-risk children.

A deferment is a temporary postponement of payments. During a deferment, interest does not accrue. If you are working in a position which you believe will qualify you for a cancellation, you may request a deferment at the beginning of employment to suspend billing and defer payments of principal and interest.

A cancellation is "loan forgiveness." Following a year of service in one of the roles listed above, a portion of your Perkins loan balance may be cancelled. Cancellation rates are as follows:

1 st year of service:	15%
2 nd year of service:	15%
3 rd year of service:	20%
4 th year of service:	20%
5 th year of service:	30%

For qualifying early intervention and child service cancellations, a deferment should be requested prior to the first year of service. After that, request a cancellation and deferment each year on the anniversary of your original deferment.

Early intervention and child services cancellations require an employer-certified job duties description.
