SECTION 2: INFORMATION

A cancellation/deferment may be available if you are employed full-time as a:

- Teacher in a federally designated low-income school or education services agency
- Special education teacher of disabled children
- Teacher in a shortage field
- Faculty member at a Tribal college or university
- Speech language pathologist with a master's degree working exclusively for low income schools
- Librarian with a master's degree in library science employed in a low-income school or public library servicing low-income schools

A deferment is a temporary postponement of payments. During a deferment, interest does not accrue. If you are working in a position which you believe will qualify you for a cancellation, you may request a deferment at the beginning of employment to suspend billing and defer payments of principal and interest.

A cancellation is "loan forgiveness." Following a year of service in one of the roles listed above, a portion of your Perkins loan balance may be cancelled. Cancellation rates are as follows:

1 st year of service:	15%
2 nd year of service	15%
3 rd year of service:	20%
4 th year of service:	20%
5 th year of service:	30%

For qualifying teaching, speech pathologist, and library services cancellations, a deferment should be requested prior to the first year of service. After that, request a cancellation and deferment each year on the anniversary of your original deferment.

With the exception of teachers in a federally designated low-income school, all teaching and librarian servic

With the exception of teachers in a federally designated low-income school, all teaching and librarian services deferments/cancellations require that an employer-certified job description be included with this form. Librarians and Speech Pathologists must provide documentation evidencing a master's degree.
